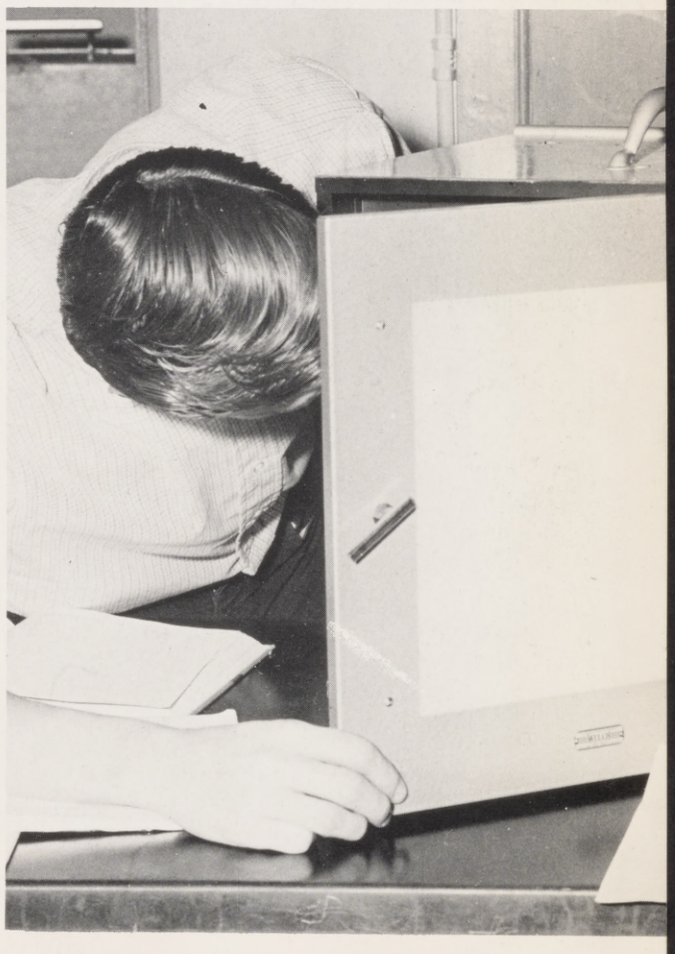
RIGHT: "Hello in there!"



Our Dedication is to the most Loyal

Once there was a feisty Sophomore at the old Richmond Union High who crackled with zest for life and learning. She really did. Ask her teachers. Everything was a challenge, met head-on in glee, rapture, wonder or dudgeon. She was smarter than some of her teachers and taught them a thing or two. Although her favorite subject was history, she read all kinds of books, including "Twenty Thousand Years in Sing Sing." As a Junior and Senior she got A's in all the hard courses. She never took a Mickey Mouse. Fearless, she enrolled in Latin and laughed her way through amo, amas, amat. After she graduated there was a four-year vacuum at RUHS. Then back she came from S.F. State to practice-teach. She was a wonder. She had thirty-six fidgety Sophomores to handle. Knowing all the tricks, she never missed one of theirs. She was so good, Mr. Gray, that most wonderful of Principals, hired her on the spot. Not to teach history however. She was too good with a typewriter. Soon her classes were turning out all the paper-work in the school.

This wonder-child was, of course, our own Miss Agnes Gowen, energetic, enterprising, brilliant, bossy, generous, omnipresent doyen, guardian, and protector-in-chief of the Senior Class. We become speechless when we try to praise and thank her. Countless hours of thankless toil she has expended on us. We writhe, thinking of the slings and arrows she has had to endure because of us and on behalf of us. Our class, our activities, and our uncertain disposition have been no better than the peculiar times in which we live. But instead of rejecting us as hopeless, she has stood by us and spurred us on to try again and to try harder. From this alone we know that Miss Gowen is the greatest and most faithful member of the Class of Sixty-Nine.

Because of her preeminence, and because we admire, respect and appreciate her so much, we dedicate our Shield to Miss Gowen. We can do her no greater honor. Some of us, very likely, will associate her with the doughnuts from whose weekly sales she raised money for the Senior Class. Others will associate her with the lively weekly bulletins she so masterfully produced and put into the hands of each one of us. Still others will remember her for the big slump the Senior Class took during the many weeks she had to spend in the hospital. (How characteristic! Sawing wood gave her that ghastly pain in the neck which immobilized her). And her students will never use a typewriter without feeling an inner Gowen-nudge for perfection.

We know for certain, Miss Gowen, that you will never forget us anymore than you would forget the plague—or—your own bright and shining high school days. We shall certainly not forget you. You are unforgettable. This page testifies to that.

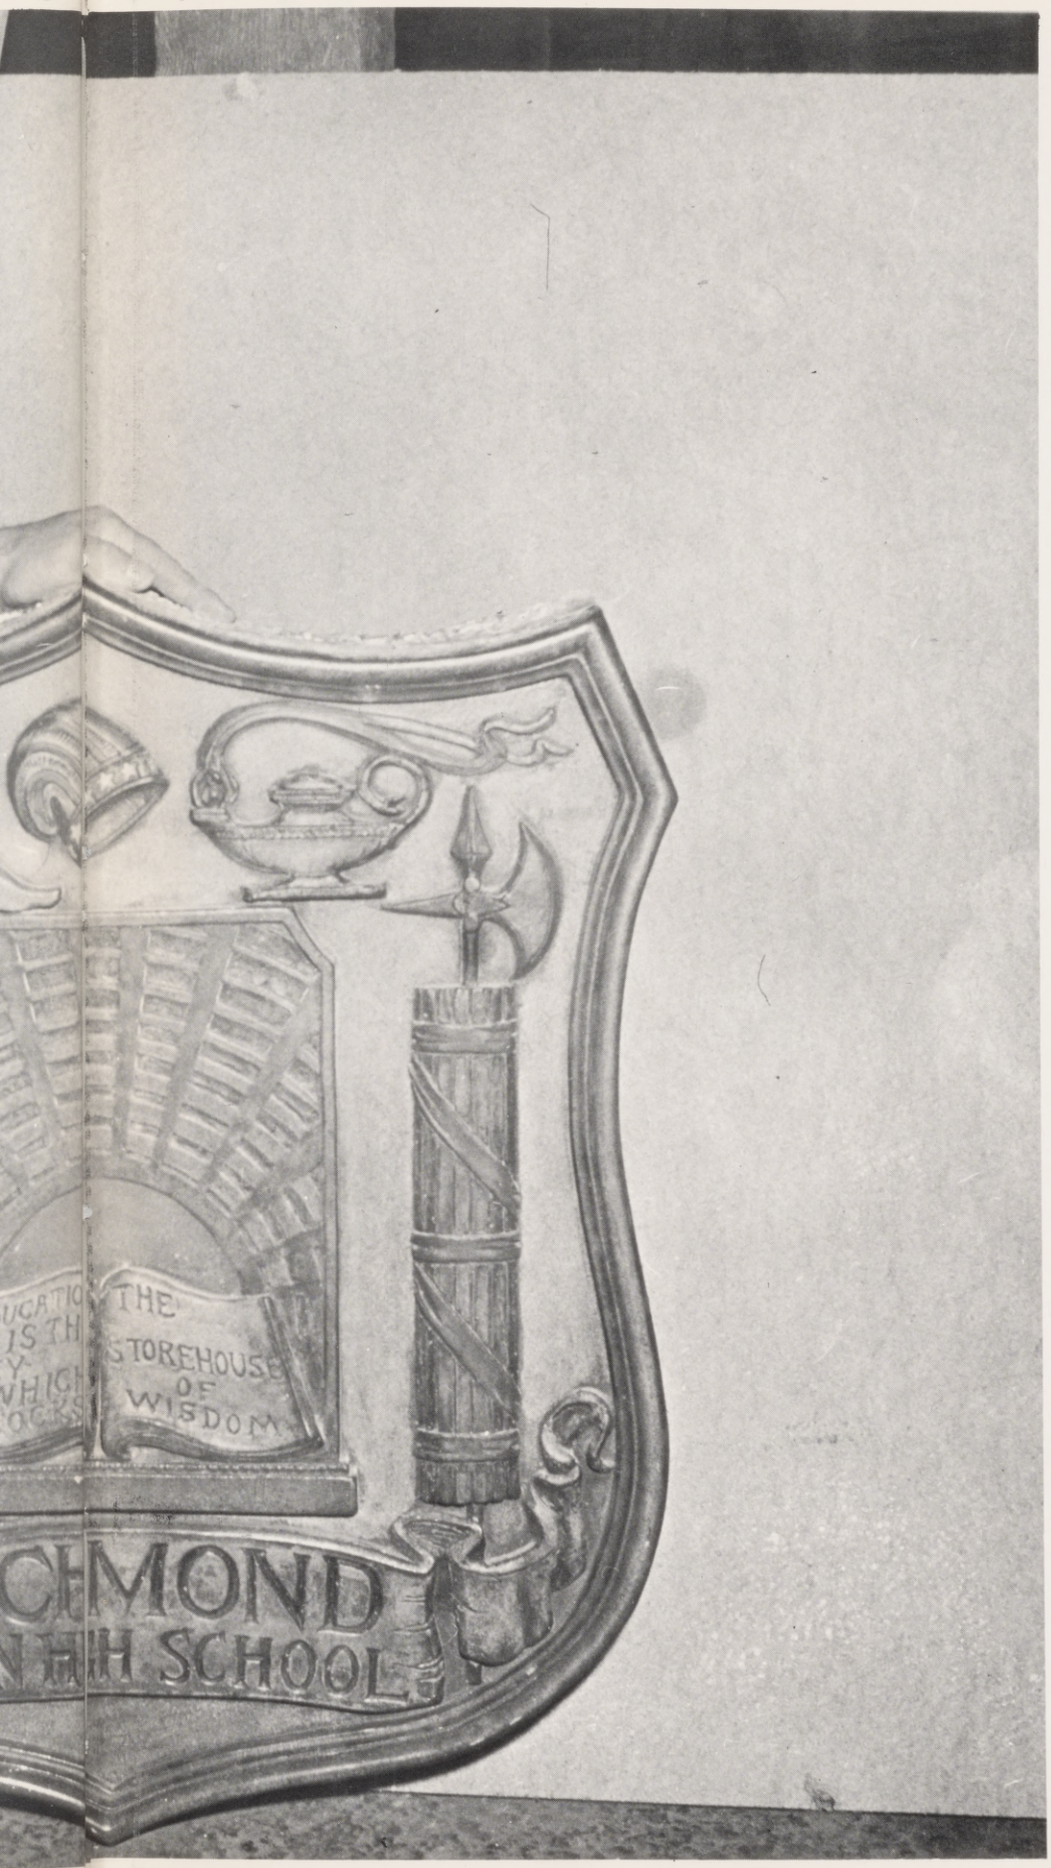
Shield is Everlasting

ng Symbol of Richmond High

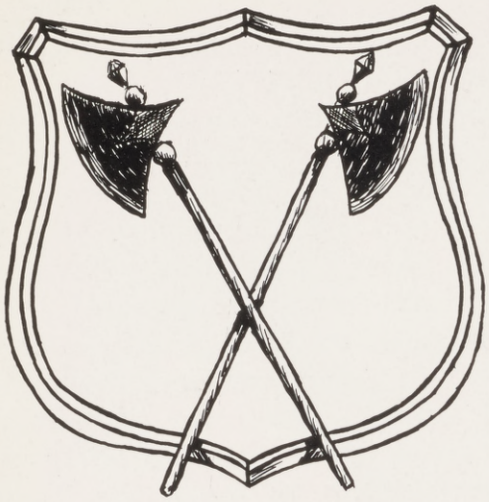


Foreword

We are the last of thirty-two Senior classes of Richmond High School to have set eyes upon the two Shield emblems of our school. One was over the entrance of the old school's auditorium, the other over the door in the library. True enough, we were mere Sophomores when we saw them. But we think this distinction worthy enough to make the Shield the theme of our yearbook.

There is grandeur in our old Shield emblem. It was meant to be grand. Mr. Bert X. Tucker, Richmond High's first principal, who devised the Shield and its symbolism, revered education, especially the classics. It was natural for him, therefore, to combine within the symbolism of the Shield the timeless ideals of the ancients and the hard realities of a modern school. The details of this symbolism we have shown on our eight Division pages.

The two Shield emblems, their bronze backgrounds somewhat faded after thirty-two years, now repose in a warehouse. We make three noteworthy observations about them. First, their faded bronze hue is the color of our yearbook. Second, they were stolen for three weeks during the demolition of the old school and then returned. Third, when the new Richmond High is built, the two Shields will be set into its walls, to bespeak as always Richmond's tradition of education as Mr. Tucker so nobly envisioned it.



THE AX

The ax symbolizes authority. This is not punitive, primitive authority beyond our control, but merely that which we delegate to our student government and its functionaries. The school administration would be the first to recognize the truth of this.

TO THE SENIORS:

You are to be congratulated upon the successful completion of one of the milestones in your life. You will look back with affection on the days you spent here, and as you go out into the community, you will appreciate the memories and traditions of Richmond High School. You are facing a nation and a world that needs your creative talents to help solve the many ills of the day. The demands that society will make of you will be great, but I am confident that you will meet the challenge.

Accept my sincere good wishes.

Sincerely,

TO THE CLASS OF 1969:

You are to be congratulated, during this time of accelerated change for maintaining your continuity of purpose despite many current external distractions.

Although tomorrow's world will reveal even greater change, I trust the education you have received at Richmond High School will serve as a steadfast foundation in overcoming these unknown challenges of the future.

I extend my wish to each of you for a life of health, happiness and success.

Best of everything,

PAUL PARKER

TO THE CLASS OF 1969:

Best wishes for a successful future. I hope that each one of you will have many pleasant memories of Richmond High School as you go through life.

TO THE CLASS OF 1969:

Congratulations on reaching the first stage of your educational journey. You have shared the traditions and experience of Richmond High School with your classmates and the thousands of alumni who have preceded you, and you will share them with the thousands who will follow you. You have done an excellent job in continuing the traditions of this school and in preparing yourselves for the future. Good luck in the succeeding stages of your journey.

ROBERT DYCUS

TO THE CLASS OF 1969:

You are ending a decade, as well as a phase of your education. We hope we have helped you and prepared you to meet the new adventures of the 70's. May the years ahead be most rewarding and successful for each of you.

TO THE CLASS OF 1969:

I sincerely hope the graduation for which you have been preparing the last three years has been a rewarding experience.

Remember always the happy times, the insights gained, and the friendships you have made.

Learning is continuous, and opportunities are always open to those who keep learning, have an open mind, and are willing to sacrifice present pleasures for hard work and future success.

FRED BENNETT

TO THE CLASS OF 1969:

In classical Latin, there was a word for the greatest of all virtues a person could possess. That word was magnanimi, and it meant persons with "bigness of spirit".

We still use the word magnanimous to honor a person who cares for others. Thus "bigness of spirit" is not confined to people of one race, people of superior intellect, or people of economic superiority, but it can be achieved by all of us.

My wish for the Class of 1969 is that Richmond High School has provided each of you with the opportunity and desire to become magnanimi in all the years of your future.

ART CURRICULUM

The art classes give students opportunities to be creative in their work. Art students work with pencil, ink, water-color, poster-paint, linoleum block, papier mache, Fourdriner tissue, and paper sculpture. The applied art students work with clay, silver, wood, leather, and enamels. Advanced Art courses are open for interested students. These students are admitted after an interview with the instructor and work with materials used in the art classes, plus silk screening and oils. Fine Arts Appreciation provides an opportunity for students to become acquainted with the arts from earliest times through the most modern.

Home Economics prepares future Homemakers in successful home living.

HOME ECONOMICS CURRICULUM

The Homemaking program is varied to meet the interests of all students. The role of the homemaker is one which requires many skills in feeding and clothing the family, spending money wisely, and maintaining a healthy home. Juniors begin to specialize in Home Management I and learn to care for their first homes and to understand child development. Seniors elect one semester of Home Management II to learn the art of creating an attractive home, cooking for two, budgeting, and family relationships.

Food and Clothing classes are for those who wish to specialize in those areas. A new course in Sewing as a vocation is being developed.

GIRLS' P.E. CURRICULUM

The Girls' Physical Education program is designed to offer students an opportunity to develop physical skills, as well as leadership, sportsmanship, and an appreciation for sports.

In the Freshmen and Sophomore years, emphasis is on team sports, gymnastics, rhythmic activities, and fencing. In the Junior year, the emphasis is on individual sports, archery, tennis, gymnastics, team sports, and swimming. In addition to the individual sports offered at the Junior Level, badminton and modern or folk dancing are offered at the Senior level.

The curriculum also includes physical fitness testing for all girls and special physical education classes for those who are on limited physical activity. Co-ed is also a part of the program.

A G.A.A. program is open to all girls interested in participating in the after school sports program.

ENGLISH CURRICULUM

The English Department this year has been busy instituting an elective semester program. In place of the standard English 3 and 4 program of previous years, students can now elect to take a variety of courses: Psychology and Literature, The American Hero, Short Literary Forms, The Short Story, The Modern Novel, Black Literature, Reading Skills, English Literature, American Literature, Literature and Morality, Advance Placement, Mythology and Literature, English Skills, and Public Speaking. Also all Juniors must take a semester of composition, and Seniors can take a Senior Advanced Composition Course to help prepare them for college. Besides the new courses, classes like Drama, Oral English, Journalism, and Creative Writing are still being offered. New books and new methods are being experimented with, and both students and teachers seem to be enthusiastic about the new program, which allows teachers to teach in those areas where they have strong interest and allows students some choice in the matter of their curriculum.

MUSIC CURRICULUM

The Music Department believes that each student should have the opportunity to develop skills in music. A student should recognize music as an international goodwill and desire to continue some form of musical experience both in school and following graduation. In this respect he may participate in some kind of musical performance, either as an individual or as a member of a group, listen to music with understanding and enjoyment, associate the musical score with what is heard or performed, and improvise and create music of his own.

A student acquires such knowledge about music as history of music, form and design of music, symbolism of the music score, and the role of composers in various historical periods.

The Music Department offers classes in Band, Orchestra, Harmony, A Cappella Choir, and Treble Clef. There are also other organizations that are developed from these classes: Pep Band, Stage Band, and Chamber Choir.

MODERN LANGUAGE CURRICULUM

Our Modern Language Department offers three programs of study: Spanish, German, and French. During the first two years of study, the skills of pronunciation, conversation, and understanding are accentuated. Comprehension and expression are the objectives of the oral method, which includes study in the language lab, filmstrips, and tape recordings.

Basic skills, speaking, reading, writing, and understanding are developed in advanced language classes. A larger vocabulary is acquired through the language lab, the reading of foreign novels, and daily application.

SOCIAL SCIENCE CURRICULUM

Required and elective courses are offered in the Social Science curriculum, which provides basic history, knowledge and civic education. To qualify for a high school graduation diploma, a passing mark is required in eleventh grade U.S. History and twelfth grade American Government. Emerging Nations is a tenth grade elective course, which provides extensive examination of Latin America, Africa, Communist Bloc Nations, Southeast Asia, and China.

Sociology is also an elective subject aimed at promoting understanding and awareness of present-day problems. Emphasis is placed on marriage preparation and family life, including philosophical, physical, psychological, and moral aspects of the family unit. World Culture, an elective, is designed to inform and interest students in various cultures and civilizations. Subject periods include Greece, Rome, Medieval Europe, India, the Renaissance and Leonardo, the Modern West, Goethe, and Darwin.

New electives this year are Anthropology and Black History. Both courses deal with diverse cultures and different races.

Two of Richmond's Finest Leave to Cultivate their Gardens

MRS. CORA MATTONEN

Mrs. Cora Mattonen is old vintage Richmond High. By this we mean that not only can Mrs. Mattonen teach with one hand tied behind her, but that she is drenched with Richmond tradition. That is, she is a personality, warm, jolly, perceptive, the very best of friends to her students and her fellow-teachers. There is nothing thorny in her manner, nothing kookie in her attitudes. She is solid, yet flexible, individual, yet cooperative, geared to high standards, yet easy in method. She is wonderfully open and habitually kind. Everyone feels at home in her presence, for she is not forever trying to prove something or to be somebody. She is her own proof that sanity and happiness go hand in hand.

Undoubtedly Mrs. Mattonen's background has had everything to do with her splendid balance and outlook. She had, for example, the good luck to have been born on a cattle spread in eastern Colorado. As a girl she often helped to round up the cows which (she has wryly observed) minded her no better than her students. As a teenager (imagine this!) she would ride her horse long, lonely moonlit miles, pondering her teenage problems. Eventually she left the romantic and rugged cattle country for the Colorado School of Education where she got her A.B. in Biology, with minors in English and Chemistry. Her first teaching job was in Craig, Colorado, which she soon gave up in order to get further schooling at the Universtiy of Colorado. From there she took a teaching job in Rock Springs, Wyoming. It was in Rock Springs that Mrs. Mattonen met and married her beloved Bill. The two of them came to Richmond area during World War II, and Mrs. Mattonen joined the Richmond system in 1944. In 1951 she became a member of RUHS faculty.

From the very first Mrs. Mattonen loved Richmond High, finding it in every respect more congenial to both her personal and professional sides than any of the other schools at which she had taught. Her career at Richmond has been long (eighteen years), happy and often exciting. By far the greatest part of her contentment, however, has come from her wonderfully harmonious life with her husband Bill, and Gordon, their son, who attended El Cerrito and U.C. At the present time Mrs. Mattonen delights in her two handsome and lively grandchildren, Marc, age eight, and Marcie, age four. Now that she is going to retire, these two will probably see a lot more of their statuesque, energetic and doting grandmother, although we know that she will certainly not play less bridge than she does now, read less books, or begin to neglect her garden.

MR. LLOYD DARLEY

In a noisy world we often find that a quiet man seems the most precious of Nature's gifts. When we approach him, he does not at once begin to shout, scold, simper, show-off or pontificate. A quiet man says little and listens. His stillness soothes us, his modesty refreshes us. His strength communicates itself to us as simply as summer warmth. We have a man like this on our faculty. He is Mr. Lloyd Darley, one of our counselors. Patient, wise as an owl, and intensely humane, Mr. Darley has listened to many young men and women and helped them to find themselves. He has been the parent they did not have at home, the good friend in need. Not many people know about these good and silent works of Mr. Darley. So we tell them here.

Mr. Darley has not always been a counselor; this happened about midway in his teaching career. Previously he had taught Shop (he is credentialed for Woodwork, Sheetmetal and Electricity), Mechanical Drawing and History. So we know that he is a master craftsman, besides being a gentleman and a scholar. But he was also, believe it or not, a fighting man. Specifically, he was Technical Sergeant in the Signal Corps of the US Army, stationed in Wales and then in Paris during World War II.

Mr. Darley is almost a Californian. He was born in Utah but brought up in Northern California. He was graduated from Butte Valley High School and Chico State. He also attended U.C. and Oregon State University. So much schooling dented him for life. There is no counting the books he has read about every kind of technical subject and every period of history. Further, he is practically a charter-subscriber to KQED and takes in most of their high-powered, dry-as-dust (to Star-Trekkers) programs.

We should not, however, get the notion that Mr. Darley is a pale and mousy indoor type. His great twin passions are pursued outside: golf (he's pretty good) and gardening (he's terrific). Between these two his true madness is reserved for his loamy earth, flowers, shrubs, and soft green grass. His garden is truly a sight to melt anyone's heart, but especially his own, and especially because, like him, it pursues its way in graceful, comforting silence. We are sure that Mrs. Darley is the happiest of women.

Gardening, we believe, (along with golf) will more than fill up the time—twenty-three at Richmond High, and three years before that at Tule Lake—Mr. Darley used to spend at school. We know that his retirement is as welcome to him as a blazing fire on a freezing day. We shall miss him sorely. But we know that he and his garden have a rendezvous that cannot be put off any longer.

Relevance Comes

The Social Science teachers are having a go at redoing their courses. American Government will never be the same, if all goes well. Neither will US History. On the North Campus, World History has already undergone a dazzling face-lifting. With Vice-Principal Wilson blessing them both and cutting red-tape, Mrs. Stott and Mr. Gahart now team-teach a richly varied and exciting World History.

On the South Campus, under the benign care of Principal France and Vice-Principal Dycus, the trail-blazing SS Chairman, Miss Myren, is leading her department in the pursuit of new angles and approaches to history and government. Teachers Mackler, Madison, McCarthy, Myren and Eldredge are writing new courses in history such as FROM THE GAY NINETIES TO THE COLD WAR, DISSENT, REVOLUTION AND SOCIAL CHANGE, MINORITIES IN US HISTORY, AND FAMOUS AMERICANS. THE LIBERTY CAP

The liberty cap, worn so defiantly by the subjects of Louis XVI, adorns the very apex of the Shield. It denotes the liberty all of us enjoy in our great school. Although not many of us wear hats at school, this invisible liberty cap every one of us wears.

Otis Black gives his reasons for running for SA president.

This speech helped Lynn Baumberger win the preliminary nomination for the office of treasurer.

Giving it all the spirit she has is Karen Van Dagriff, campaigning for the office of head yell leader.

Express Viewpoints

January 7, 1969

With a solemn face, Mike De La Garza delivers his speech for the office of SA president.

With a hopeful look, Krişta Fuglestad promises "to give her all" if elected to the office of SA secretary.

Eleven Freshmen delegates give their full attention to the procedure of the voting.

Jerry Power and Magna Gonzalez keep records of the voting and inform the convention upon the results.

Convention Marks

Miss Dorothy Madison and Miss Ann Myren, convention advisors, take a count of the North Campus delegates.

Randolph White and Curt Brasier call for a recount for the presidential candidate.

Seniors and their guests display costumes at Beaux Art Ball.

Costumed Students Attend Beaux Art Ball

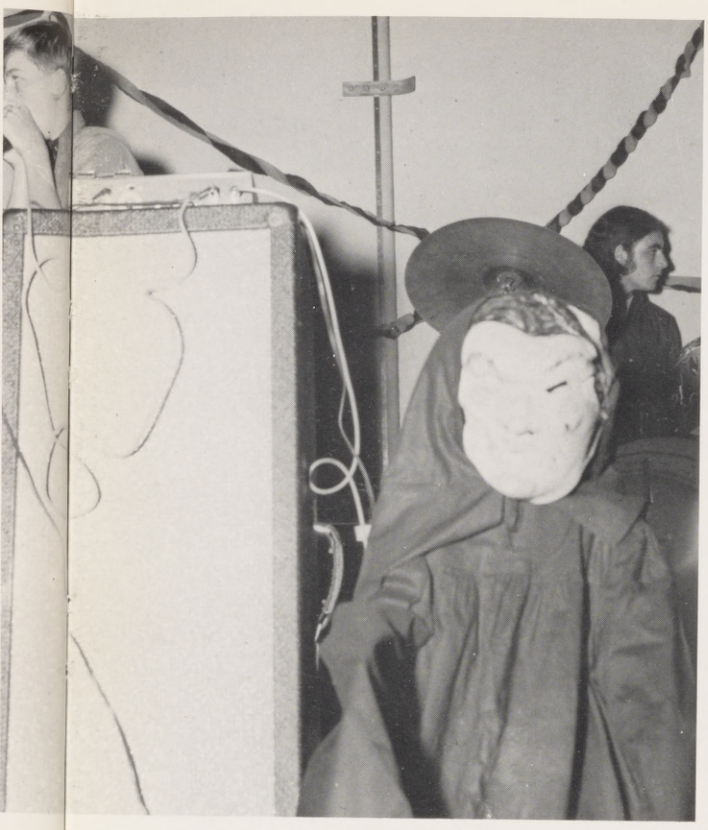
October 25, 1969

Cleo and Clown get together on old times!

Seniors contribute light show to Beaux Art Ball.

Chaperons enjoy themselves at the dance, as all remains calm with Mr. Paul Parker's Chinese wisdom.

Jesse Hernandez is stunned by the cameraman.



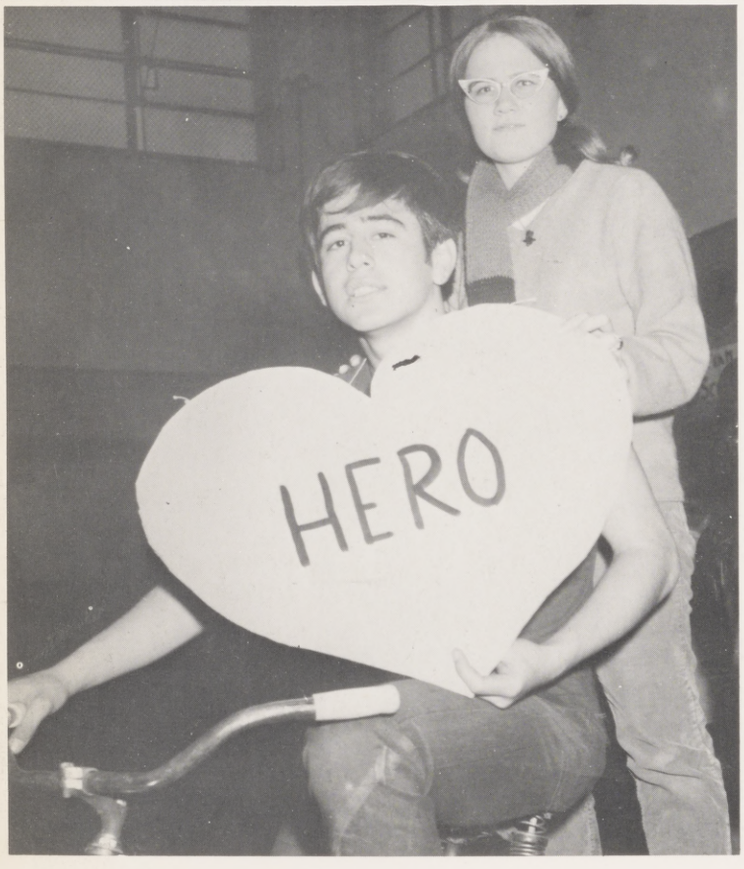
Patty Play Pal is the doll of the ball.

Beaux Art Ball enthusiastics are Hartmut Schwartz, Judi Gordon, Ladonna Whitney, Jerry Power, and Pat Harris.

Old lady Virginia Ayers kicks her heels in glee.

Juniors mill around the table to observe the costumes.

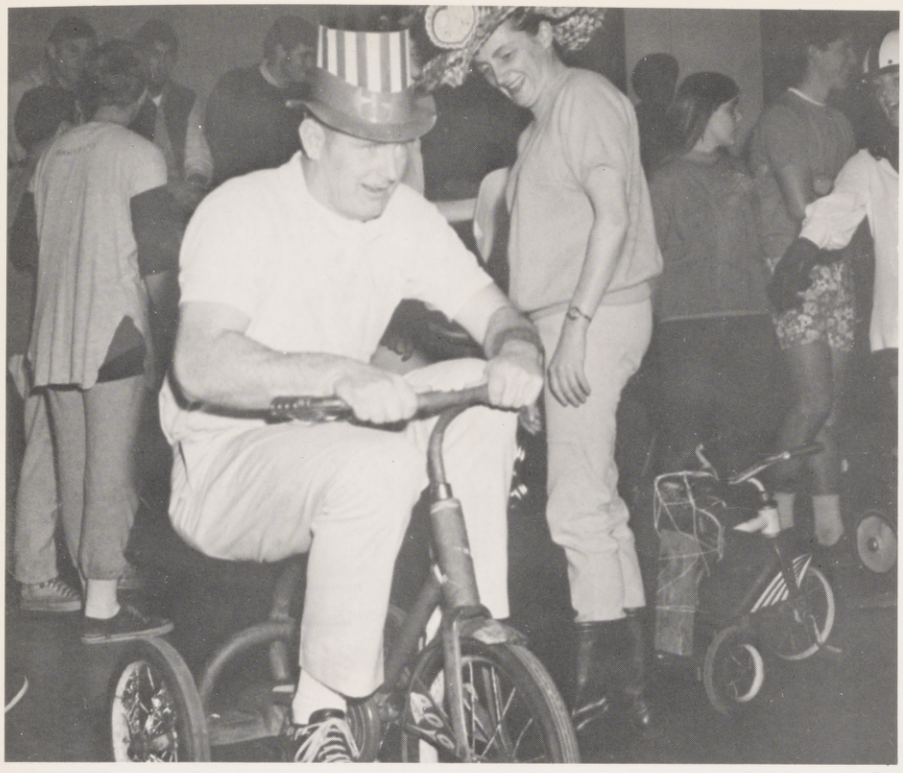
A quick view is taken on rules and strategy to be used by the trike racers.



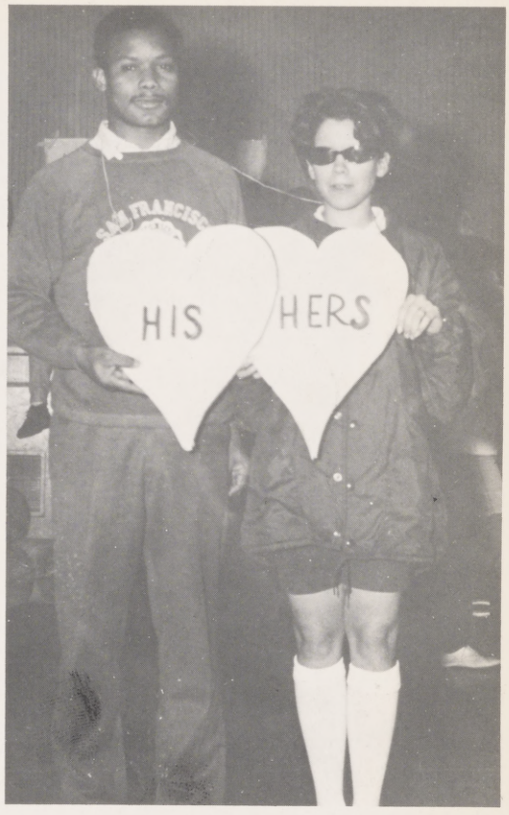
Heroes for the day are Al Garcia and Jackie Kirk.

Seniors Sponsor Tottering

Janice Mears gives loving guidance to trike racer, Rick Paredes.



Coach Emery Phillips tries his trike for size, while accomplice Mrs. Katherine Curl checks out those wheels.



Mr. Mel Warren and Miss Christie Biagi are super-heart winners for the teachers' race.

Tumbling Trike Race

February 14, 1969

Riders get themselves ready on the line-up as Glenn Bomgardner says a silent prayer.

Student sweetheart winners for the trike race are Wanda Cox and Gary Lewis.

With a loud bang, students rally around the balloon splash.

Seniors Strike Up Excitement For All On Victory Fun Night

Illustrious Speakers Discuss Job

Steve Ford proudly demonstrates his press card to Mr. Paul Parker.

Darrell Woo is a spectator to the cafe discussions.

Seniors engaged in heated discussion on best careers are Glenn Bomgardner, Betty Mitchell, Lynda Davidson, John Adams, and Tom Gibson.

Mr. Terry McPherson of Beckman Instruments gives an enlightening speech to the Engineering-Electronics group.

Opportunities At Career Night

March 12, 1969 South Campus

Breaktime provides an opportunity for teachers, speakers, parents, and students to discuss the information presented.

Vice-Principal Robert Dycus and Supervisor Howard Ball seem to have lost their place in the program.

To a Senior, Career Conferences mean decisions, mass of facts, encouragement, puzzlement and food?

Anthropology Opens Doors of Knowledge

Anthropology challenges Senior students to study at close range the man, his thoughts and actions of the past, in order to understand the man today.

Rick Winship in silent thought, Roger McCalflin amazed, and Mary Delgado student informer, are a few of the personalities who make Anthro, sixth, in Room 122 interesting.

And Understanding of Man's Past and Present

Mr. Robert Mackler, instructor, offers students an opportunity for a one-one discussion on important points.

Students describe their complex family trees among themselves, before discussion is opened to class evaluation.

Anthropology is a science of man, that deals with origin development, races, customs, and beliefs of mankind. The study tends to concentrate on the over-all problems all men have, particularly. through the concepts of culture.

Individual study is an important exercise to prepare students with basic knowledge for good discussions.

Seniors Fill Holiday Inn

Checking Senior Dues Cards are Vice-Principal Paul Parker and Dean Fred Bennett until Mrs. Dolores Durant and Mrs. Nicila Dominquez arrive to take over.

THE RODS

In ancient days the rods, tied up in a bundle with an ax, meant beatings for the luckless lawbreaker. In the Shield, however, the rods represent the students. The ax in their midst poses no threat, but indicates the laws made by themselves, which guarantee freedom from beatings.

Standard Oil's Rockefeller

Federal Court Judge Mary Turner presides over Rockefeller's trial with grace and decision.

Windy Hollow: Room 123, Period One

First period U.S. History 8 consists of twenty-five girls, eight boys, and Miss Dorothy Madison. Frequently the air of 123 is blue with their strongly treble confrontations. At one time, for example, they brought to trial the archetype of all industrialists, Rockefeller. Two doughty males defended the old boy, two fire-eating females prosecuted, a female-minus-two jury judged, and the most feminine of judges presided. As usual with this group, the verdict was long and painful in coming. All concerned, including the storm-tossed teacher, learned much and emerged with noble scars.

RIGHT: Defense Attorney Pamela Burns has just poignanded prosecutions of Shaughnessy and Woo.

MIDDLE: Prosecuting Attorneys, David Shaughnessy and Darrell Woo, stand open-mouthed before the arguments (and stare) of Defense Attorney Pamela Burns.

LEFT: Debbie Lew, prosecution witness, is momentarily beaten down by the Defense Attorney.

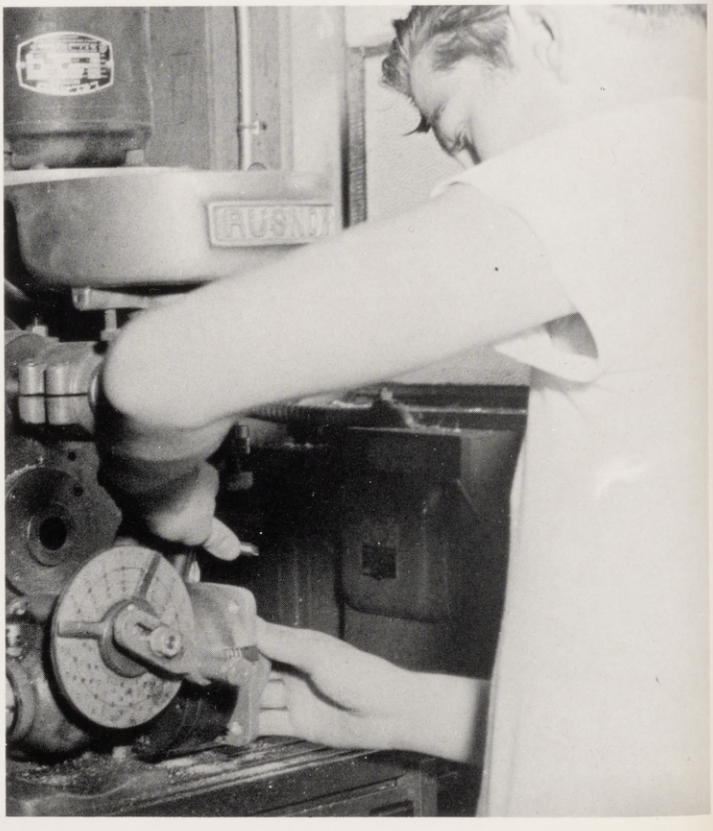
Tech Lab Performs

Chuck Wagner makes up castings.

Larry Turner finds pouring the mold castings a dangerous task.

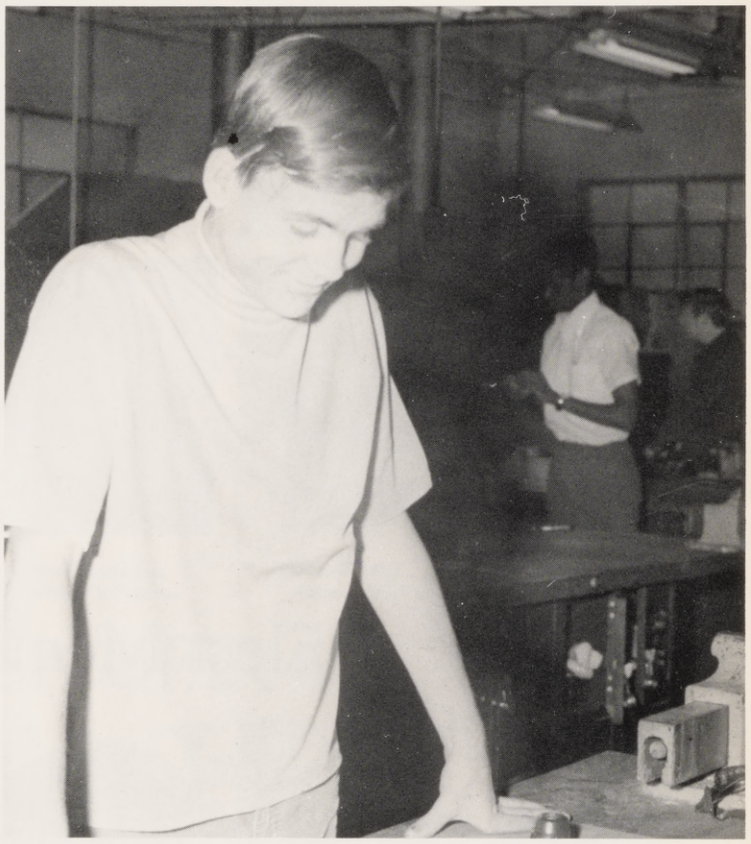
With tolerances at .001 of an inch, Jaime Duzon takes great care.



Milling the universal base is being done by Richard McGreehan.

Universal Mount Experiment

Face masks are a must, as Charles Duarte cuts universal parts.



Lane Munger looks over the completed universal mount parts.

Roger Missall gives the final touch with spray paint.

Instructor Paul Brown with grade book open performs the final inspection as Ken McFarland and Roger Missall look on.

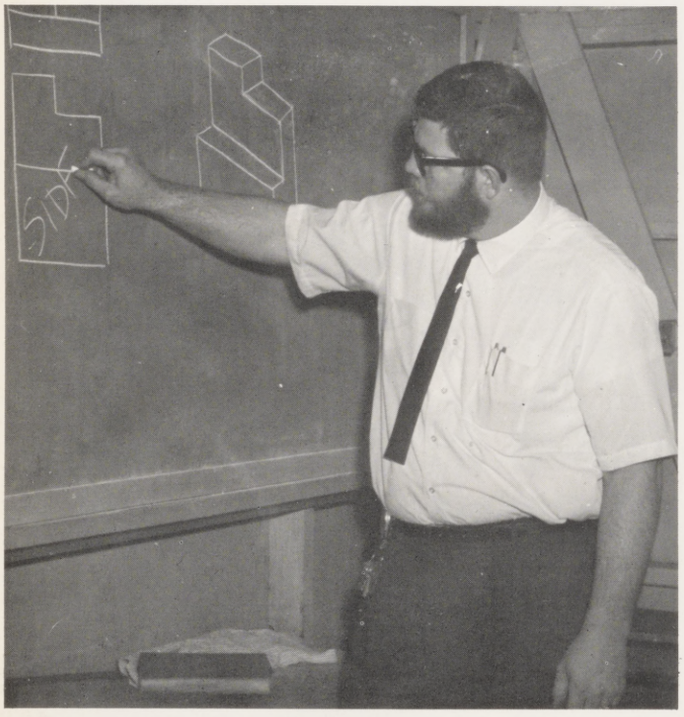
Sophomores Learn

Keith Davis and Jackie Begley prove a notable theory that drafting does take efficient time allowances for planning.

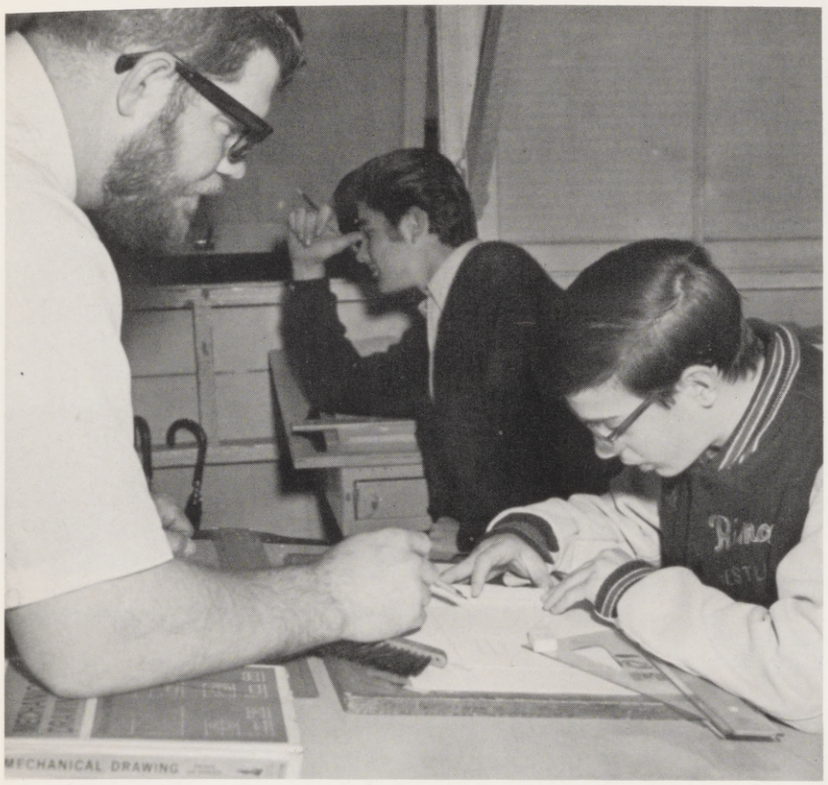
Anthony Agnitsch discusses correct placement drawing to Mr. Batterman, his instructor.



Mr. Batterman introduces a unit upon pictorial drawing.

It taxes the brain, but it's worth the results and good layouts to complete Will Davis' job.

Drafting Skills



Dan Smith and Ben Rowe are surprised by Mr. Batterman's demonstration of the missing line in their calculations.

Perfection seems to be what Mr. Mori, instructor, aims for.

Mr. Mori understands the problems which George Norris is asking about.

Charles Kraft receives Mr. Mori's personal touch to finish a worthwhile project.

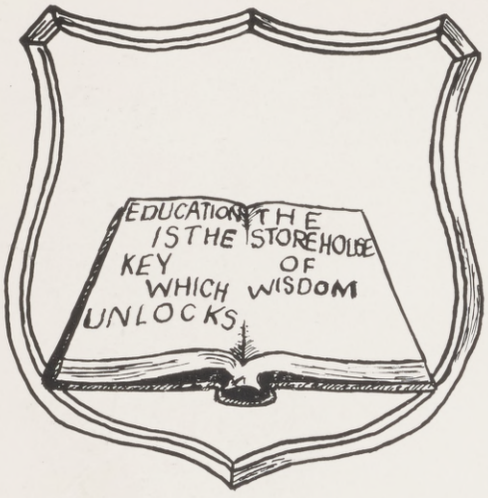
Lois Pearl "Sweetheart Baby For 1969"

1955 was the year for Lois Pearl. At 5 months she stole the eye of the camera, and 14 years later, the same picture stole the heart of North Campus Voters in the March 21 Freshmen Baby Picture contest. Lois Pearl, No. 1 baby, rated 303 votes against 32 other contestants, which makes her "Sweetheart Baby for 1969".



THE OPEN BOOK

The book lying open in the center of the Shield represents not only the learning derived from books, but also learning from membership in clubs and societies. We learn how to work, play and achieve together. We learn that together we share more joy, exercise more power, and attain more distinction than we could as an outsider.

Miss Kathleen McCarthy (second from left), AFS advisor, awaits with the reception committee to get the honored guest, Hyti Lundy from Barbados, West Indies. Hyti spent a week at Richmond High School, while Luciano Renni spent the week at Dixon High School. The AFS club held a welcoming party for Hyti.

The American Field Service Club, under the sponsorship of Miss Kathleen McCarthy, works to promote interest in the exchange student program. The club works for international understanding. This year Richmond High School is hosting Luciano Renni and Luiz Hexsel.

American Field Service Club

Luiz Hexsel of Brazil chats about life in America with Rosa Maria Pinto.

Hyti takes time out to get ready to join the reception line. While at RUHS, she lived with the Stanley Fuglestad family of San Pablo.

Carol Reibslager and Linda Bickham are interested observers of the party festivities.

Mrs. Nicilia Dominguez, her niece, and Miss Vera Crosby also attend the reception to greet Hyti.

Welcomes Foreign Exchange Students

North Campus Science Club, sponsored by Mr. Edward Bisiar, works to promote interest on scientific topics, answer questions and perform experiments in science. The club meets every Tuesday.

California Scholarship Federation

All students who show by any semester's record that they have made the necessary points of eligibility are entitled to apply for membership in the California Scholarship Federation. Ten points derived entirely from curricular studies are needed. A is 3 points and B is 1 point. A mark of D or F in any subject bars membership for the semester. No points are given for Physical Education, repeated courses, or work experience for pay.

Life membership is awarded to Seniors who have been on CSF four semesters, with one of these during their final year.

Spirit of Friendliness

Every girl at Richmond High School automatically becomes a member of Girls' League. This organizaton promotes the welfare of all girl students. It fosters a spirit of friendliness among the girls, provides a means of furthering all activities of girls, and encourages school loyalty.

During the year, the league sponsors many fund-raising activities so that it may send a representative to Girls' State in the summer. The members also hold the traditional Mother-Daughter Tea and share ushering duties at various programs.

The Soph-Frosh members are under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Iwai. The Senior-Junior girls have Dean Helen McDonald as their advisor.

Activities

Luiz Treasure House

Luiz Hexsel's American family is (standing) Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vargas, and Sandy, a Sophomore at RUHS. John and Kimberly are seated. They reside at 2607 Lowell Avenue. Luiz is at the far right.

Luiz Agusto Hexsel, foreign exchange student from Brazil, lives with his American family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vargas. The Vargas family includes Sandy, a Sophomore and majorette at Richmond, Kimberly and Johnny, and Mr. and Mrs. Vargas. Luiz also has two married sisters.

This Brazilian was born in Passo Fundo on January 7, 1951, to Mr. and Mrs. Conrado Hexsel. One of five children, he has three brothers, Carlos, 17; Alberto, 14; Roberto and a sister, Marie Luiza, age 11.

Luiz arrived in Richmond on July 9, 1968, to become a member of the Vargas household at 2607 Lowell Avenue.

The exchange student enjoys flying miniature airplanes and racing cars.

Luiz and Sandy, American sister and brother, get ready to depart for school.

Sandy shows Luiz the American way of decorating a Christmas tree.

of Brazilian Culture

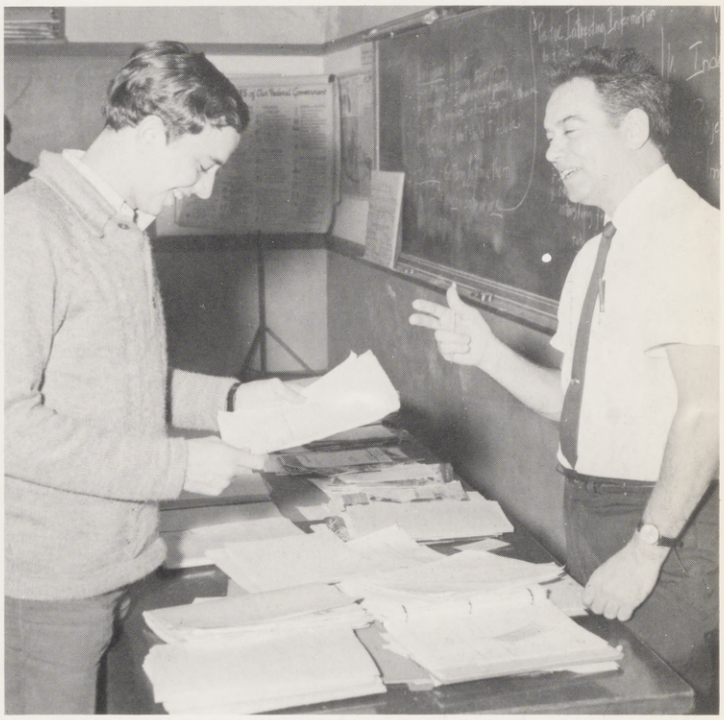
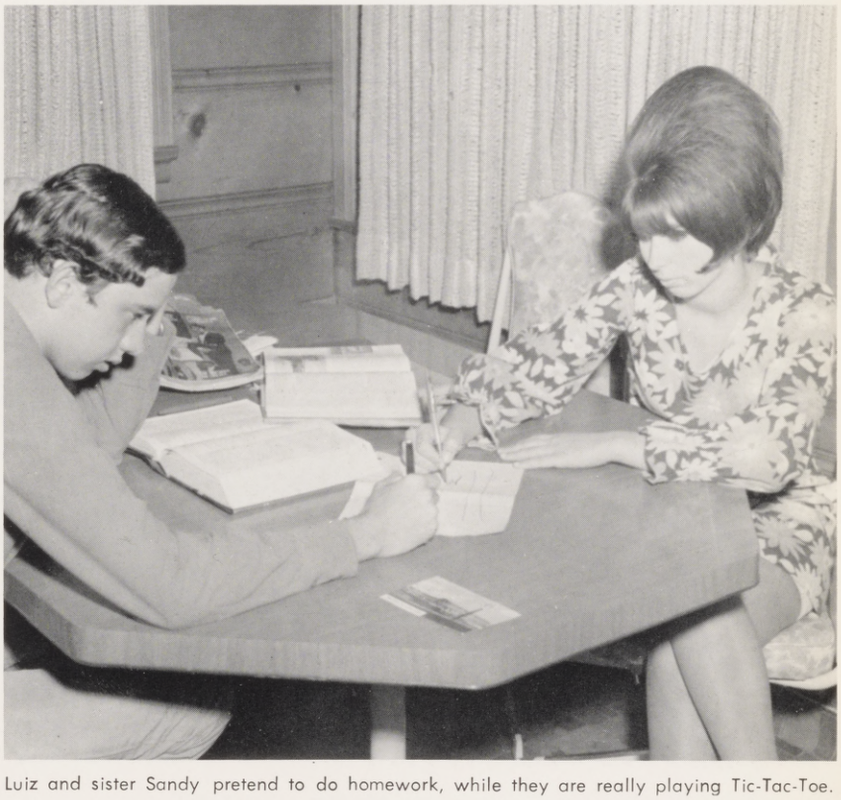
Miss Vera Crosby, Luiz's counselor, explains the complications of going to an American College.



An "A" paper was proudly given to Luiz by his government teacher, Mr. John Enos.

Luiz studies very hard to learn his adopted country's tongue, the English language.



Luiz and sister Sandy pretend to do homework, while they are really playing Tic-Tac-Toe.

Lucci Exemplifies Italian

LUCIANO'S AMERICAN FAMILY — Mrs. Alice Garcia, Luciano, Mr. Lupe Garcia, Alfred Garcia, and Jessie Garcia.

During the 1968-69 school year, Luciano Renni has been attending classes at Richmond High School as the foreign exchange student from Italy. He arrived in New York August 10, 1968, and then journeyed by plane to San Francisco. There he met his American family, which consists of Mr. and Mrs. Lupe Garcia, Alfred, Jessie, and Andrea.

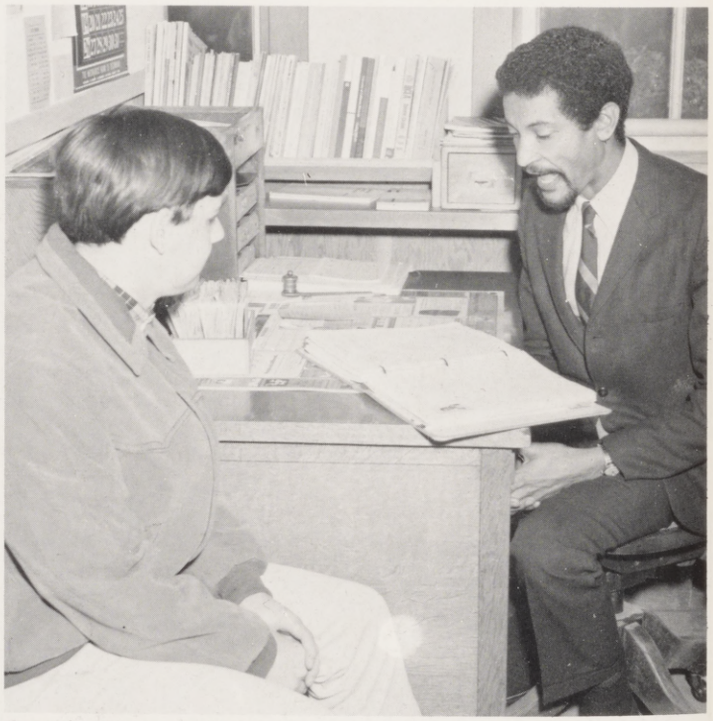
His brother, Alfred Garcia, is a Senior at Richmond High. The family home is at 2718 Shane Drive.

Luciano, who is better known as Lucci, was born October 1, 1950, in Trieste, Italy. His parents are Cesare and Laura Renni. He has a younger brother, Dario, who is 12.

The exchange student enjoys swimming and table tennis. He is a champion ping-pong player and is ranked number two in Italy.

Leaving Richmond June 25, Luciano will tour the United States and then head for his native land in July.

Miss Ann Myren, Luciano's government instructor, points out an important factor to the exchange student.



Counselor Lonnie Robbins advises Luciano upon his classes for the Spring Semester.

Personality and Charm

Lucci tries to save the fading life of the flame.

Lucci, Al, and Jessie get together for some boy talk.

Mrs. Garcia gives the mother's touch to tantalizing foods for a hungry Italian.

Alfred gives Lucci a very good taste of American jazz.

RUHS Student Spends Summer in Finland

Magna's Finnish family consists of Mother, Sirkka; Risto, 8; Father, Eero; Lauri, 11; Antti, 13; and Riitta, 15.

Risto, Lauri, and Riitta sit on the rail of the Sauna bath house.

Last summer, Richmond High sent Magna Gonzalez as an AFS exchange student to reside with the Kalliola family in Nokia, Finland. Magna left Richmond June 21 and went to New York by plane. From there, she began the long trip via boat, bus, train, and ferry to her destination.

During her three-month stay, Magna learned Finnish customs through her family of six and the many friends she acquired.

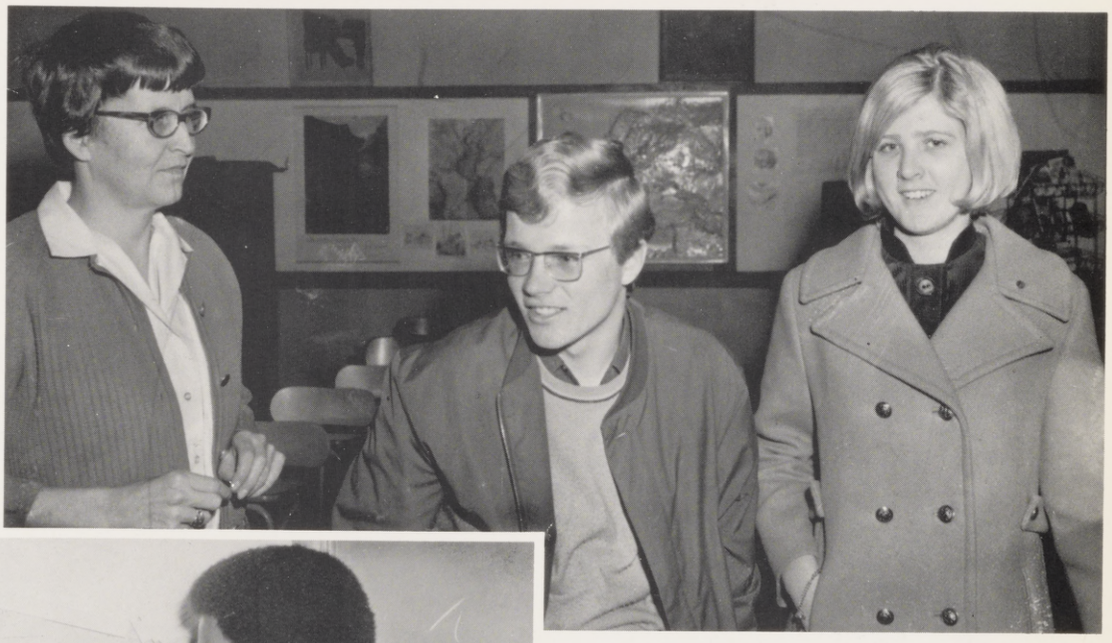
Magna visited the capital and traveled through parts of Finland before returning home in September.

Magna s grandparents and Aunt Tulle.

Magna greets her Finnish mother at Turku Harbor.

The family poses in front of their summer home.

Exchange Students Tour Our School



Miss Ann Myren, Malte Hamburg and Nelleke Hendel, visiting foreign students, chat about their different customs.

Michael Gaines greets Hyti Lundy of Barbados Island, as she enters the Richmond High news room.

Krista Fuglestad and Suzanne DeCaccia, AFS finalists, hope to get a better understanding of other countries. These girls will go abroad this summer.

BEAN POT DAY—Lynda Davidson, Susan Morris, Norma Smith, Susan Scott, Ntckie Woid, and Linden Laird drop their pennies, dimes, and quarters into the pot to help support the Richmond High orphans.

For 21 years Richmond High's Foreign Language Classes have helped to clothe, feed, and house several foster children. With the $45 donated each month by the classes, the orphan children are able to attend school until age 17, when they begin to work at the trade they have learned. The foster children send letters which are translated by the Foster Parent Plan, who select the needy children, to their American friends.

The orphans are Maria Teresa Hernandez, age 17 from Colombia, and Gerarda De Castro, age 12 from the Philippines. The foreign language students are also sharing a very special event with Salvador Augusto Varela this year. Salvador is graduating and he has asked Richmond High to help support him through college. Salvador will be the first of Richmond's foster children to attend college.

Making up the Police team included Marvin Smith, Player-Coach; Chuck Laird, Mike Nichols, and Otis Timmons along with a number of other Policemen.

Representing the faculty were Coaches Larry Quirico, Emery Phillips, Dennis Guintini, Jerry "Bear" Ludy, and Rich Abel. Also on the team were John Maltester, Steve Meahan, Eric Zaibel and Dennis Abel.

The game was filled with action, as the capacity crowd of students watched. At the game's end the faculty retired to the health resort to recooperate.

In a game played November 22 the Richmond High Faculty blew a lead and lost 52-51 to the Richmond Police Department in a benefit basketball game held during a special assembly.

Alma Mater

Our strong band can ne'er be broken
Formed in Richmond High.
Far surpassing wealth unspoken
Sealed by friendship's tie.

Chorus:
Alma Mater, Alma Mater
Deep graven on each heart,
Shall be found unwav'ring true

When we from life shall part,
High school life at best is passing
Gliding swiftly by,

Then let us pledge in word and deed
Our love for Richmond High

Our Appreciation . . .

This past year has been an eventful and memorable one. We hope that this Shield will serve as a lasting remembrance of it for all.

A special thank-you goes out to the members of the administration and faculty for their patience and cooperation with staff members and photographers. We are grateful to Miss Vera Crosby for outstanding seniors and scholarship information, Mrs. Claire Shaw for arranging GAA pictures, Miss Agnes Gowen for making our sales books, Miss Ann Myren for her toleration, and Mrs. Margaret Iwai for arranging pictures. Our staff is forever indebted to Miss Dorothy Madison who gave up her time to share her literary talents with us.

We give thanks to the Taylor Publishing Company and to our representative, Mr. Fred C. Dahlinger. We appreciated all the sports pictures and negatives from Mr. Hiroo Kaya of the Richmond Independent and the Gridley Herald. We also extend a thank-you to Mrs. Dorris Curry of Capwell's Photo Studio for all her help and understanding.

We express appreciation to the entire Journalism I Class for their much-needed assistance, and especially to Laurie Battles and Debbie Kerby of the north campus for looking up room numbers. We can't show enough gratitude to the student photographers who provided the Shield with pictures: David Cooley, Christopher Vincent, and John Mullen. We also thank Mrs. Marialyce Lage for conducting the Shield sales on the north campus.

A personal thanks is bestowed upon each member of the staff for his contributions, which made the 1969 Shield a reality.
